University Construction Update

Explore our Picture and Video Gallery Here

By December, the construction of our two classroom blocks had progressed to window level, with the parking area carefully marked out in anticipation for paving. As January draws to a close, we are thrilled to report significant progress. Work on the parking area is underway, and steelwork on the classroom blocks is being finalized in preparation for roofing.

While we had initially aimed to complete the roofing and paving by early January to align with preparations for our dedication ceremony, unforeseen delays slightly adjusted our timeline. Nevertheless, we are delighted to share that the dedication ceremony successfully went ahead as planned, and the roofing and paving are now in full swing.

We can't wait to unveil the finished works soon! Stay tuned for more updates as we continue to witness the vision of Africa Wesleyan University College come to life.

AWUC DEDICATION CEREMONY: A Historic First Two Classroom Blocks - 14th January 2025

It was such a joyous occasion to dedicate the land on which the university is being built and the buildings in which students will not only be transformed through quality education but will call their second home away from home.

The Honorable. Douglas Svakalima. Minister of Education. and several heads of Government Offices from Zimba, Choma, and Kalomo graced the event to show their support for the University, which contributes to the national agenda of providing higher education to the nation's populace.

We were honored to welcome several international guests from the Jo'burg International Wesleyan Leaders Conference, including the General Superintendent of the Wesleyan Church, Dr. Wayne Schmidt, who led the dedication of the first two classroom blocks.

Local clergy from the Wesleyan Church, alongside National Board Administrative Members, the University Council, and other special invited guests, including representatives from Poetice, joined in the ceremony to celebrate the significant milestone.

We sincerely thank everyone who attended the event, as well as those who joined us via live stream. Your prayers and support have been instrumental in bringing us this far. May God continue to bless you all!

PROPOSED GRAND OPENING UPDATE

We know many of you are just as excited as we are about the launch of Africa Wesleyan University College! Your enthusiasm and support have been incredible, and we are deeply grateful for it. That's why we want to update you about a change to our grand opening date.

After careful consideration, we have decided to adjust the date to allow more time to ensure everything is absolutely ready. This is a significant milestone, and we want to make sure it's perfect for you, for our students, and for the future of the university.

While our initial proposed dates were set for the second half of 2025, we are now aiming for January 2026 as the new launch date. This additional time will enable us to gather even more support and connect with prospective students to ensure a strong start to our first semester.

Thank you for your patience and understanding as we take this important step. We are excited about what lies ahead and look forward to making 2026 a year of incredible beginnings for Africa Wesleyan University College.
